

Seton Catholic Central May, 2015 Newsletter

MISSION STATEMENT - The Catholic learning environment at Seton Catholic Central is inspired by our ever-present teacher, Jesus Christ. Our students are encouraged to develop a love of learning which will serve them throughout their lives. Our mission is to meet each student's needs -- spiritual, academic, physical, social, and emotional -- through a fiscally responsible program that recognizes the importance of stewardship in all its forms.

Relay For Life – This year's Relay For Life is Friday, May 15 (6:00 p.m.) to Saturday, May 16 (6:00 a.m.). Your support and enthusiasm is greatly appreciated. Log on to www.relayforlife.org/setoncatholicNY to help us beat last year's total of $18,500.

History Club Travels to Gettysburg - The Seton Catholic Central History Club took its 8th annual trip to the Gettysburg National Military Battlefield on the weekend of April 24-26. Students were able to explore noted sites of the battlefield including Culp's Hill, Cemetery Hill, Little Round Top and the Devil's Den. The end of the trip culminated with a reenactment of Pickett's Charge and a visit to the National Cemetery where Abraham Lincoln gave his famous Gettysburg Address. Thanks go out to moderator Thomas McDonough and chaperones Kevin McDonough, Wendy Ford and Darlene Swift.

Host Families Needed – There are a number of exchange students who are expressing an interest in attending Seton next year. In order to facilitate the process, they need host families. If you are interested in hosting an international student, please contact the Guidance Office. Students are willing to pay up to $800.00 per month for housing.

Help the Saints “Drive the Green” for Catholic Schools! – On Thursday, June 18, 2015, The Catholic Education Foundation will be holding the 11th Annual Hengel Sports Classic at the Traditions Resort in Johnson City, New York. The Hengel Sports Classic is a celebrity golf tournament that celebrates athletic achievement and benefits the Catholic Schools of Broome County. Contact Shannon Fallon at (607) 231-1440, events@cefst.org or visit <http://www.hengelsportsclassic.com> for information on how you can participate in the tournament and help support faith-based education in our community.
